February 2009

Happy Valentine's Day

* Beginning on February 2nd you or your child may purchase candy grams or rose grams. The flowers will be delivered on Valentine's Day. Watch for more information in your brown envelopes.

* The class will be exchanging valentines on Friday, February 12. If your child wants to bring valentines, please make sure that every child receives one. There are 10 boys and 15 girls in the class.

First Communion Meetings

*The second grade is quickly approaching their First Communion. Parent meetings are February 14 in Spanish at 9:15a.m. and February 19 in English at 7:30p.m. Please note these meetings are for parents only. The meetings will be held in the Parish Hall.

Volunteer Hours

Are you in need of some volunteer hours? Well on Saturday, February 28, there will be a Work Day for all grades from 9:00am-12:00 pm. All parents are welcome to help clean, repair and build as needed. This is a great way to earn some volunteer hours!

Notes from Mrs. Jackson

Congratulations to our second graders on successfully completing their First Reconciliation. Please continue to give your children the gift of this sacrament a few times a year. Now, the preparation for First Communion begins! Please attend the parent meeting this month for you own renewal of the meaning of this sacrament as well as obtaining important information. I hope you enjoyed seeing your students' work at the Open House during Catholic Schools Week as well as the
