Dear Our Lady of Grace family,

Praise be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

On this second Sunday of Lent, I would like to leave you with a reflection from benedictine monk Laurence Freeman, OSB:

“We make the choice to be peaceful, not on the global but personal level, not through external action but through interior work. It should as Jesus says be a modest and hidden work so that the ego has less occasion to hook on it. As we are so will our world be. Be calm and you will create calm. You may give up alcohol or candy or Netflix or gossip or checking your phone before you pray in the morning. You may read the daily gospel as part of your prayer, or choose a book as your companion through the desert of the next forty days. Perseverance and consistency work wonders in our state of mind and for the harmony of inner and outer: and because we are not perfect and not machines perseverance includes starting again when we fail.

These Lenten practices increasingly become sources of peace and delight as we try to be faithful to them. They are in fact among the simple, free pleasures of life—not burdens or bores. Through then, throughout Lent we remember the virtues that are often downplayed or ridiculed in our culture—moderation, self-restraint, repetition, respect for our limitations. Give up something and do something extra. This is the heart of healthy spiritual exercise. The fruits of Lent will not appear if you try to force them or just by thinking about them. They bud and flower and fall subtly, surprisingly and therefore delightfully.”

LENTEN RECIPE OF THE WEEK

When I was a religious brother living in community we took turns cooking dinner. In a monastery that had 8 to 12 brothers one had to learn to be frugal with the budget, creative with the recipe, and still look appetizing.

You may have heard, made or tasted lentil soup before, but lentils are perfect to have in salads as well! The recipe of this week is just that Lentil Salad, which is both filling and light thanks the fresh vegetables that balance the protein and fiber present in lentils.

MEDITERRANEAN LENTIL SALAD

INGREDIENTS

- Lentils
- Grape tomatoes
- Cucumbers and radishes
- Red onion
- Kale, spinach and/or arugula
- Green olives
- Feta Cheese
- Lemon or Greek dressing
- Fresh mint and parsley

STEPS

1. Rinse and prepare the lentils before cooking them
2. Simmer the lentils—fill a large pot halfway with water, bring it to a boil, and add the lentils. Simmer until they're tender. The specific cook time will depend on what type of lentils you're cooking.
3. Cut the vegetables, in tiny squares, as you would for a normal salad.
4. Dry the lentils and place them at the bottom of your salad bowl.
5. Add the vegetables, feta cheese, and dressing. Mix to combine and voilà! You got yourself a mediterranean lentil salad!

Happy Cooking!

En este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, me gustaría dejarles una reflexión del monje benedictino Laurence Freeman, OSB:

“Tomamos la decisión de ser pacíficos, no a nivel global sino personal, no a través de la acción externa sino a través del trabajo interior. Debe ser como dice Jesús un trabajo modesto y oculto para que el ego tenga menos ocasión de engancharse en él. Como somos, así será nuestro mundo.

Mantén la calma y crearás calma. Puedes dejar el alcohol, los dulces, Netflix, los chismes o revisar tu teléfono antes de orar por la mañana. Puedes leer el evangelio diario como parte de tu oración o elegir un libro como compañero en el desierto de los próximos cuarenta días. La perseverancia y la coherencia hacen maravillas en nuestro estado mental y en la armonía interior y exterior: y como no somos perfectos ni máquinas, la perseverancia incluye empezar de nuevo cuando fallamos.

Estas prácticas de Cuaresma se convierten cada vez más en fuentes de paz y deleite a medida que tratamos de serles fieles. De hecho, se encuentran entre los placeres simples y gratuitos de la vida, no entre cargas ni aburrimiento. Hasta entonces, durante toda la Cuaresma recordamos las virtudes que a menudo son minimizadas o ridiculizadas en nuestra cultura: la moderación, el autocontrol, la repetición, el respeto por nuestras limitaciones. Renuncia a algo y haz algo extra. Este es el corazón del ejercicio espiritual saludable. Los frutos de la Cuaresma no aparecerán si intentas forzarlos o simplemente pensando en ellos. Brotan, florecen y caen sutilmente, sorprendentemente y, por tanto, deliciosamente”.

RECETA DE CUARESMA SEMANAL

Cuando era un hermano religioso que vivía en comunidad, nos turnábamos para preparar la cena. En un monasterio que tenía de 8 a 12 hermanos uno tenía que aprender a ser frugal con el presupuesto, y a la vez creativo con la receta.

Es posible que hayas oído, preparado o probado la sopa de lentejas antes, ¡pero las lentejas también son perfectas para acompañar ensaladas! La receta de esta semana es esa ensalada de lentejas, que es a la vez abundante y ligera gracias a las verduras frescas que equilibran la proteína y la fibra presentes en las lentejas.

ENSALADA DE LENTEJAS

INGREDIENTES

- Lentejas
- Tomates de uva
- Pepinos y rábanos
- Cebolla roja
- Kale, espinaca, y/o arugula
- Aceitunas verdes
- Queso feta
- Aderezo de limón ó griego

PASOS DE PREPARACIÓN

1. Lave y escurra las lentejas antes de ponerlas a cocer.
2. Llène con agua una olla grande hasta la mitad, déjela hervir y agregue las lentejas. Cocine a fuego lento hasta que estén tiernas. El tiempo de cocción dependerá del tipo de lentejas que esté cocinando.
3. Corte las verduras, en cuadritos pequeños, como lo haría para preparar una ensalada normal
4. Seque las lentejas y colóquelas al fondo de un plato hondo para ensaladas
5. Agregue los tomates, pepinos, espinaca, y demás verduras, queso feta y aderezo. Mezcle para combinar y ¡listo! ¡Ya podrá disfrutar de una ensalada mediterránea de lentejas!

¡Disfrute de la receta!

THIS IS MY BODY ESTE ES MI CUERPO

At the Last Supper, Jesus, in a culminating way, embodied Yahweh's desire to sit in easy intimacy with his people sharing His life with them. He said, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." (Luke 22:15)"

Do I desire to sit in easy intimacy with God? What do I need to do to safeguard time for prayer, for an intimate conversation with God? Do I eagerly wait to receive Jesus in Holy Communion because He does!!! He is waiting for us, longing for us, and desiring our love and presence.

It is most important to remember that the Last Supper took place on the night before Jesus' death, which is to say, at the moment, when He was summing up His life and preparing for his own Passover into the realm of the Father. Therefore, insisting that He will not eat or drink again until the Kingdom arrives is tantamount to explaining that this meal has a final and unsurpassable symbolic significance, that it is His last words spoken, as it were, in the shadow of eternal, and thus redolent of the divine order.

What would be my last message to those who are around me at "my last supper" before I die; what would be the most important words to pass on to my loved ones?

"This is my body, which is given for you." ... "This cup that out for you is the new covenant of my blood." (Luke 22:20). Jesus fed His friends with His very substance, effecting the deepest kind of co-inherence among them because of the radicality of His own co-inherence with them. To say, body and blood, in the nondualist context of first-century, Judaism, is to say self, and thus Jesus was inviting His disciples to feed on Him and thereby to draw His life into theirs, conforming themselves to Him in the most intimate and complete way possible.
